THIS MATTER Having come on regularly before the Energy Facility Site Evaluation Council at its regular meeting of May 12, 1980 upon petition by E. H. Knapp, Jr., Prosecuting Attorney for San Juan County, for limited intervention in the proceedings relating to the application for site certification by the Trans Mountain Oil Pipe Line Corporation, the Council having heard argument pertaining to the merits of intervention by San Juan County and the Council having duly voted to allow intervention by San Juan County,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY ORDERED By the Council that San Juan County, a political subdivision of the State of Washington, is accorded status as a limited party intervenor in the proceedings relating to the application for site certification of the Trans Mountain Oil Pipe Line Corporation, such status being limited to the intervenor's presentation of evidence of the impact of the project upon the citizens and resources of San Juan County. This accordance of intervention binds the intervenor to refrain from any action to delay or interfere with the conduct of the contested case hearings. Within the constraints cited above, the intervenor is given all rights of intervention according to Title 463 of the Washington Administrative Code.

Dated at Olympia, Washington and effective this 27th day of May 1980.
