THIS MATTER Having come on regularly before the Energy Facility Site Evaluation Council at its regular meetings of April 13, 1981 and April 27, 1981 upon petition by Thomas S. Hayward, Attorney for the Lincoln County Agricultural Coalition, for intervention in the proceedings relating to the application for site certification by the Washington Water Power Company, the Council having heard argument pertaining to the merits of intervention by the Lincoln County Agricultural Coalition and the Council having duly voted to allow intervention by the Lincoln County Agricultural Coalition;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY ORDERED By the Council that the Lincoln County Agricultural Coalition, an unincorporated association in Lincoln County, is accorded status as an intervenor in the proceeding relating to the application for site certification of the Washington Water Power Company Creston Generating Station as it relates to the effects of construction and operation of the proposed coal fired steam electric generating station as may directly impact the following interests of the Lincoln County Agricultural Coalition: agricultural and ranching practices; farm market transportation; water quality and supply; air quality; and labor services. This accordance of intervention binds the intervenor to accept the record of the case, to abide by all decisions rendered herein and to not unduly delay the proceeding or prejudice the rights of existing parties. Within the constraints cited above the intervenors are given all rights of intervention according to Title 463 of the Washington Administrative Code.

Dated at Olympia, Washington and effective this 27th day of April 1981.
