Ongoing Research Projects at University of Idaho:

Global Transportation and Technical Barriers Impacts on Pacific Northwest Agricultural Export Competitiveness, initiated July 1, 1998
Potential Trade with China, WRCC 101, initiated 1994.

Potential Trade with China, WRCC 101, initiated 1994

Pacific Northwest Hinterland Wheat Projection Model (PNWSHIP), initiated September 1, 1991 (TRANSNOW Hinterland version completed January, 1993-sequel PNWSHIP Model Applications being carried out under NC-186 project above).

Past Research Projects:

Structural Changes in the U.S. Grains & Oilseeds Marketing System in a Dynamic and Global Marketplace, NC-186, initiated October 1, 1992.

USDA-CSRS TCK Smut Study, completed 1995.

Performance of the U.S. Grain Marketing System, NC 186 Regional Project, initiated October 1, 1987, Completed 1992.

Intermodal Transportation in the Pacific Northwest, Funded (TRANSNOW) September 1, 1989 and completed January, 1993.

Agricultural Trade Behavior in Centrally Planned Economies, Funded September 25, 1987, terminated September 30, 1989.

U.S. Agricultural Trade Relations with the Asian Pacific Rim Countries, initiated July 1, 1982 and completed 1987.

Effects of Trade Embargoes and Noncompetitive Pricing of Surplus Commodities on U.S. Farmers, initiated and completed 1986

Performance of the U.S. Grain Marketing System in a Changing Economic and Policy Environment, NC-160 Regional Project, initiated 1981, completed 1986.

Impact of Maritime Policy Changes on Columbia River/Pacific Rim Commerce, initiated 1983, completed 1986.

Pacific Rim Trade Relations and Maritime Commerce on the Columbia/Snake Navigation System, initiated 1981, completed 1986.

Economic Analysis of the United States Grain Export System (NC-139 Regional Project), initiated 1976, completed 1981.

Mathematical Programming Models for Projecting Cargo Movements Along Snake/Columbia River Ports (Columbia Regional Sea Grant Program), initiated 1978, completed 1980.

Potential for Grain and Oilseed Trade with Selected Eastern European Countries (in cooperation with USDA and University of Illinois), initiated 1978, completed 1981.

LASH and Other Intermodal Services in the Pacific Northwest Export Distribution System (CSRS Competitive Grant Project), initiated 1976, completed 1981.

Grain Commodity Flow Study (NCSR/Corps of Engineers Project), initiated 1978, completed 1979.

Columbia-Snake Navigation System's Role in Intermodal Ocean Transportation (Columbia Regional Sea Grant Program), initiated 1976, completed 1978.

Extension and Service:

(No formal appointment - see section entitled "Presentations and Miscellaneous Extension/Service Activities.")

Major Committee Assignments:

University of Idaho:
