

MICHAEL S. BURNETT

THE CLIMATE TRUST
65 SW Yamhill Street, Suite 400
Portland, Oregon 97204
503-238-1915

Employment Experience

The Climate Trust, Executive Director, 1997 - Present

- Guided assembly of a 17 program, $9 million offset portfolio that represents over 2.7 million metric tons of greenhouse gas reductions
- Development of annual work plans and budgets, and management of staff in the implementation of the work plans
- Oversee The Climate Trust greenhouse gas acquisition activity
- Active participant in the national and international policy debate regarding greenhouse gas mitigation
- Member of the Climate Change Integration Group appointed by Oregon Governor Ted Kulongoski and on the Steering Committee of the Voluntary Carbon Standard.

Trexler and Associates (now Ecosecurities), Vice President, 1998-1999

- Facilitated corporate strategies for utility, petroleum, and manufacturing clients
- Developed early action crediting proposal for national industry group
- Prepared feasibility study on major international carbon offset project

Conservation and Renewable Energy System, Managing Director, 1999- Present

- Managed the start-up of a Joint Operating Agency of eight Washington PUD's
- Negotiated $65 million in conservation and wind contracts on a fast track
- Turned $300,000 in start-up investment in $21 million in net financial benefits
- Conducted largest municipal bond sale to fund energy conservation ($38 million)

Public Power Council, Senior Engineer, 1987-1992

Pacific Northwest Utilities Conference Committee, Senior Conservation Planner, 1983-1986

Bonneville Power Administration, Load Research Manager, 1982-1983

Western Solar Utilization Network, Energy Systems Analyst, 1980-1982

National Park Service, Energy Program Coordinator, 1978-1980

Education

M.S., Environmental Engineering Sciences, University of Florida, 1978

- National Science Foundation Graduate Fellow

B.A., Biology, Hiram College, 1975