

EXHIBIT 70-1 (LS-1)

Leray E. Stream

6914 Easy Street
Yakima, WA 98903

Work 509-575-2740 / Home 509-965-2272

EDUCATION: Oregon State University. Corvallis, Oregon. BS Wildlife Management. 1973

EMPLOYMENT: 25 years experience with WDFW

- Wildlife Control Agent. 1974 - 1977. Deer Park, Walla Walla, Cheney.
- Non-Game Biologist. 1978. Ephrata.
- District Game Biologist. 1979 - 1980. Yakima.
- Regional Nongame Biologist. 1981 - 1996. Yakima.
- District Wildlife Biologist 4. 1997 - 1999. Yakima.
- Regional Wildlife Program Manager. July 1999 to present..

Management & Budgeting:

- Development of Regional Wildlife Management budgets while in acting position (1982 & 1999). Included Wildlife Area, Habitat Dev. (Upland Restoration), & Wildlife Biological Programs.
- Development and implementation of 3 year goshawk monitoring project (1994-96). Developed budgets, hired seasonal personnel, supervised project, Coauthored final report.
- Develop annual budgets (1982-94) for program needs at the regional level for the Wildlife Diversity program.
- . Responsible for wildlife program budget in region 3

Biological:

- Develop and implement game and wildlife diversity surveys
- Analyze data collected for management considerations
- Write reports for PR coordination and status reviews
- Write environmental analysis for reintroduction projects
- Participate and make recommendations in hunting season processes
- Respond to public on all aspects of wildlife management activities
- Represent WDFW at public and government agency meetings
- Conduct educational presentations for constituent organizational gatherings
- Represent the Department on Spotted Owl Management & Recovery efforts
- Initiate goshawk monitoring project and represent WDFW on old growth forest issues
- Coordinate bighorn sheep re-introductions regionally
- Monitor bighorn sheep, mt. Goat, mule deer, and elk populations
- Participate in International Caribou Re-introduction Project
- Coordinate, develop, and implement peregrine falcon re-introduction projects
- Supervise Rio Grande and Merriam turkey introductions in Yakima & Kittitas Counties
- Establish osprey nesting structures for enhancing Kittitas and Yakima valley populations
- Represent the region in grizzly bear and gray wolf recovery efforts
- Initialize GPS and GIS use in research and management for spotted owls and goshawks
- Coordinate and conduct regional waterfowl and upland game surveys
- Monitor Yakima and Colockum elk herds—population estimates & herd health
- Develop Neotropical bird surveys—long term trend analysis
- Represent WDFW on sage grouse and shrub steppe management and expansion efforts
- Represent Wildlife Management Program on District Teams

Supervisory:

- Regional Survey Biologists - 1986 -1997. 1-2 employees per year.
- Goshawk Research Project - 1994 - 1996. 4 five month temporary employees.
- Regional Biologist 2 - 1997-99. 1 permanent employee.
- Wildlife Program Manager July 1999 - present. Supervise 18 biologists in the wildlife program.

EXHIBIT 70-1 (LS-1)